BATTLE OF JUTLAND WAS A PYRRHIC VICTORY

A Few More Such and Germany Would Have No Navy

EVIDENCE ACCUMULATES THAT THE BRITISH WHILE SUFFERING DREADFULLY THEMSELVES IN- FLICTED HEAVY PUNISHMENT UPON THEIR ENEMIES

(Associated Press)

London, June 5.—Violent German attacks on the Verdun front continued last night east of the Meuse without success, according to the French war office. The Germans attacked with special severity between Dameloup village and Fort Vaux, which the French claim they still hold. In the Douaumont vicinity heavy artillery fighting continues. The German raids in the Vosges failed.

SEYDLITZ SUFFERED AND HAD TO SKIP

The German battle cruiser Seydlitz suffered heavily in the recent naval engagement, according to reports received in Denmark. These reports alleged that the Seydlitz, which is a dreadnaught cruiser of 25,000 tons was seen the morning after the Jutland engagement steaming south near Fano island, badly damaged and pursued by British warships. British fleet officers returning to London identify the Hindenburg and Lutzow as two of the German warships which were sunk.

FRENCH REPULSED

Berlin reports the breaking down of repeated attacks by massed French infantry east of the Meuse. The French lost heavily.

The Turks in the Caucasus have driven the Russians back about 25 miles, according to a Constantinople official statement. Russian attempts to cover their retreat or regain the lost positions were repelled by Turkish bayonet attacks.

ENGLISH MORE OPTIMISTIC

The British admiralty last night issued a statement saying there was the strongest grounds for the belief that the British navy in the battle with the Germans off Jutland last week had accounted for a total of eighteen German men-of-war and that there was nothing to add to or subtract from the original announcement of the British losses. The statement gave the German losses as two battle-ships, two dreadnaught battle cruisers, four light cruisers, nine torpedo boat destroyers and a submarine. The pessimism which prevailed as a result of the admiralty's original statement of losses, which now is considered to have been needlessly candid and conservative in underestimating the extent of the German losses as compared to those of Great Britain, has been greatly lessened by the later statement.

BREWER'S REPORT

Councilman Meffert Calls for a Small Correction

Councilman Meffert calls attention to the report of his statement in council Friday night with regard to the cost of generating current with the new light plant, and says that he did not refer to a report of the light and water committee, of which Mr. Roess was chairman, but referred to the report prepared for Mr. Meffert, as president of council, by Mr. Brewer of the International Steam Pump company. Mr. Brewer reported that current could be produced for three-quarters of a cent per k. w. hour.

SUPREMACY OF BRITAIN SAFE

MIGHTY NAVY YET CONTROLS THE SEA BY AN IMMENSE MARGIN

(Associated Press)

London, June 4.—The latest reports from the British fleet, from neutral vessels which witnessed parts of the great naval battle in the North Sea and from survivors, cause the British public to believe that the engagement was not so near a defeat as it first appeared, and in no wise as disaster. The British losses, with all the craft engaged accounted for, were three battle cruisers, three cruisers and eight destroyers.

The German losses are believed to have been about the same number of ships, although a much less aggregate of tonnage.

British naval experts maintain that Great Britain continues to hold the supremacy of the sea by a safe margin and that her enormous navy could better afford the losses it suffered than could the smaller German establishment. The first reports of the heavy loss of life, unhappily, have not been revised. Great Britain mourns for more than 4,000 of her best seamen, and the whole nation is oppressed with sadness, which is reflected in the faces of all the people of London.

There were 6,000 men on the ships which sank, and only a few hundred have been saved. The horrors of modern warfare far exceeding those when wooden ships fought and continued to float even when they ceased to be fighting units, were realized to their utmost. From five of the largest ships which went under with a complement of more than 4,000 men, only seven junior officers and a few seamen were rescued.

Rear Admiral the Honorable Horace Lambert Hood, second in command to Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty, and Captains Sowerby, Cay and Prowse were lost with many others. There were no surrenders, and the ships which went down carried with them virtually their whole crews. Only the Warrior, which was towed part way from the scene of battle to a British port, was an exception.

Of some thousand men on the Queen Mary, only a "corporal's" guard is accounted for. The same is true of the Invincible, while there is no survivors reported from the Indefatigable, the Defense or the Black Prince.

TOLD THE TRUTH

Secretary Lansing Says that Fatty Degeneration Threatens the United States

Watertown, N. Y., June 4.—Secretary Lansing, before the Jefferson County Bar Association here, last night, scored critics of the administration's foreign policy.

He said that a neutral right violated by loss of life was far more serious than a neutral right violated by the loss of property, and declared that there were influences in America, and even in Congress, which put rights of property and rights of life on a par. "This shows," he said, "that the great heart of the republic is threatened with fatty degeneration through those who have lost their patriotic vigor."

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE ESTIMATE

As to the Vote Which will be Polled for Senatorial and Gubernatorial Candidates Tomorrow

Editor Star: The league has made a careful canvass of the state to learn who is in first, second and third place for governor and United States senator.

The eight wet counties of Florida are supposed to poll nearly 50 per cent of our vote, and it is quite common for the liquor interests to vote absolutely solid, while with prohibitionists exactly the opposite is the case. In this instance we are dividing our vote between three for governor and two for the Senate.

Now think a moment: Half of the vote is ours, and we give our candidates each a third or a half of it, which gives him one-sixth of the total vote; the liquor men controlling the other half give it solid to their one candidate. Where will this put us? Should we not select one of our men and give him the benefit of a solid vote? Have we not as much common-sense and sagacity as they? The second choice will elect. Be sure to vote it.

The league is satisfied with Trammell and Bryan, and with Catts, Knott and Hudson, as to their fidelity to our cause. We regard them as perfectly sound on prohibition. The chances that these candidates stand of being elected, as indicated by the state-wide canvass above referred to, are as follows:

Trammell, 74 per cent.
Bryan, 26 per cent.
Knott, 53 per cent.
Catts, 36 per cent.
Hudson, 11 per cent.

These figures show the status of all the candidates, except that Farris and Gilchrist-Wall are sure to receive a strong liquor vote that our league cannot hear from. Only our friends and those more or less neutral will talk frankly to us. Farris will contest first place with our high man for governor and Wall-Gilchrist will do the same for the Senate. They will select one man to concentrate on at the last moment. Sincerely,
Anti-Saloon League of Florida,
Kent Pendleton, Supt.

THE FLORIDIAN

Is the New Name for the Seaboard Limited

Says the Times-Union: The famous Tampa-Jacksonville limited train of the Seaboard Air Line railway in future will be known as the Floridian, the executive officers of the line having decided to change the name, according to announcement made yesterday by G. Z. Phillips, assistant general passenger agent. This train is the fastest train now in operation between Jacksonville and the South Florida metropolis. It is run throughout the year on the same quick schedules and with the same superb equipment that the Seaboard offers to the winter visitors from the north on its through trains, yesterday said Mr. Phillips.

Forethought

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere. Adv.

MATTERS SEEM TO BE IMPROVING IN MEXICO

CARRANZA'S MEN ARE RUNNING DOWN BANDITS AND FRICTION WITH AMERICANS IS DECREASING

(Associated Press)

El Paso, June 5.—Americans returning from Parral, in the district of Chihuahua, Mexico, arriving here today, said that General Luis Herrera, the Carranza commander, has started an active campaign against the bandits. General Herrera's troops have killed twelve and captured several during the past week. He has ordered all weapons in the hands of other than soldiers surrendered under penalty of death. There is no anti-American sentiment manifest, the travelers say, and Americans have been assured of protection. A number of mining plants are being reopened.

HAS CHANGED HANDS

Ocala Gas Co. Purchased by a New Jersey Man Who Will Greatly Add to It

The Florida Utilities company, a newly organized corporation, has purchased the Ocala Gas company, will enlarge and improve the plant, laying at once about five miles of new mains. Mr. C. W. Hunter will continue as manager for the present at least, and will have charge of the construction work.

Mr. J. Leffert Conard, of Trenton, N. J., president of the new company, is in the city, and when seen this morning said that about $28,000, and possibly more, will be spent in improving the present gas plant and increasing the mains. The Florida Utilities company, according to Mr. Conard, was organized for the purpose of operating a series of gas plants, and at present has a plant at West Palm Beach and another in Rome, Ga. Interested with Mr. Conard in the company is Mr. William M. Muschert, of Trenton, N. J. Both are wealthy men of that city interested in the pottery industry. They believe that there is a good opening in Ocala.

Most of the new gas mains will be laid in Linwood Park, in the southeastern and the southwestern sections of the city.

Speaking of the pottery industry, Mr. Conard said that he thought that Florida kaolin would be used more extensively, and that investigations were being made looking to the use of the clays of this state. He pointed out that the war had made it necessary to seek clays at home.

WEATHERS ORDINANCE IS AT WORK

Police Have Very Little Trouble in Having It Enforced

Marshal Carter says that the new traffic regulations of the Weathers ordinance are being carried out with very little difficulty. There has been some criticism, the marshal says, but not a great deal.

It appears that the ordinance does not require all vehicles to park around the courthouse square, but requires only those vehicles that are for hire to park there. On Fort King avenue, between Main street and W. 10th streets, all vehicles must park on the north side of the street only, because of the fact that this avenue is so narrow.

The public speaking tonight will begin promptly at 7:30.

IF YOU WANT TO VOTE FOR ANGLE

WRITE HIS NAME ON THE BAL- LOT AND MAKE A CROSS AFTER IT

Jacksonville, June 5.—I respectfully ask my friends to write my name for comptroller on their ballots. If they vote for me first choice, make a cross mark in first choice column; if they give me second choice vote, make a cross mark in second choice column. The best legal talent has been consulted and justice demands that my friends be allowed to vote for me. I will appreciate it if my friends will let it be known that my name can be written on the ballots. A. J. Angle.

UNION STATION BEING MOVED

Being Moved Up, Tho, and Not Across—Railroad Commission Has Ignored Council

The railroad commission has never acknowledged receipt of the resolutions passed by council condemning the present site of the union station. The resolutions were forwarded to the commission on May 29. No answer was requested in the message sent by the city, but it is thought that the commission should have made acknowledgment at least. Council has taken no further action in the matter.

In the meantime, work is going ahead. The railroad men say it is being moved—that is, it is moving up from the ground.

HOPE FOR VICTORY WITH HUGHES

Republicans Believe They Can Win With the Jurist

BELIEVE THAT HE CAN UNITE THE PARTY AND POLL THE SUCCESSFUL VOTE NEXT NOVEMBER

(Associated Press)

Chicago, June 5.—The movement to nominate Justice Hughes in the republican national convention here this week has assumed the aspects of a genuine boom. Arriving delegations have evinced a sentiment for the jurist's nomination. Men who have been identified with the republican old guard declared numbers of delegates instructed for other candidates were ready to turn their votes to Justice Hughes after the first ballot. The lack of a controlling leadership by the old guard element is emphasized on every hand. They express themselves as not favoring Hughes for any reason of personality, but because first hand reports indicate that he is the man to harmonize sentiment and rehabilitate the party, bringing in the progressive strength.

Explanations for the failure of the expected sentiment for Roosevelt to crystallize are sought on every hand. A week ago many opponents feared a stampede to Roosevelt, but this is now said to be improbable. Republican leaders, after a canvass today, declared Roosevelt's strength would not be over 200 delegates. They believe the number will be nearer one hundred and fifty. It is asserted that the remainder wouldn't vote for Col. Roosevelt under any circumstances.

The talk of demanding a pre-convention statement from Hughes has been practically abandoned. It is generally agreed that Justice Hughes will continue to remain silent while on the supreme bench, but if he should be the nominee will immediately make a statement of his position of national questions. His supporters point to his speeches made at different times before he went on the bench, claiming that sentiments expressed by him then show he is for preparedness. Everywhere there seems to be a sentiment to avoid making the nominee a campaign issue and to select some one on whom the republicans and progressives can agree.

CLANS GATHER IN CHICAGO

Chicago, June 5.—Practically every state is represented among the delegates to the republican and progressive conventions arriving here on every train. Glee clubs, bands and other organizations are notably few.

Frank M. Hitchcock has issued a statement declaring the nomination of Hughes is inevitable. Three hundred and forty-five is the total of the "favorite son" vote. Hughes will have more than this on the first ballot. Madock, chairman of the progressive national committee, declared that his party won't go out of existence no matter what the action of the conventions.

PROGRESSIVES WILL WAIT

Chicago, June 5.—The progressive national committee has decided to withhold nominating the progressive candidate until next Saturday, awaiting the republican convention's action.

MEAT LINES FORMED IN GERMAN CITIES

Berlin, May 16. (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—For the first time since the outbreak of the war meat is hard to obtain in the capital and larger cities of the German empire. "Meat lines" have grown as long as the "butter and milk lines," and those forming them must sometimes wait for hours before they can procure the quota allotted by their cards. Responsible for this condition are the heavy demands of the army upon the meat supply, an almost total cessation of imports, and the government's new policy of discouraging the slaughtering of meat animals before fattening has given them their maximum butcher weight. Cattle owners have recently show a tendency to keep stock from the market because the maximum price arrangement has left them little profit.

COMMERCIAL CLUB NEEDS MORE ROOM

The Commercial Club, which has proved such a big success will increase its rooms in the Merchant's building. The large room to the left, at the head of the stairs leading up from the street, will be equipped for a dining room, and the room now occupied by Mr. E. L. Martin will be used as a kitchen. The club also contemplates adding a gymnasium shortly. The club has become most popular, and the hope of the members is to make of it a community organization, along the lines of community clubs elsewhere.

CANCELED GAMES WITH WINTER PARK

Ocala Team Needs More Practice. There Will be a Game, However, Thursday Afternoon

The games with Winter Park that were to have been played at Hunter Park on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons of this week, have been canceled. Manager Hunter announced today. It has been decided that it would be difficult, if not impossible, to get the Ocala boys together for the three afternoons in succession, and Manager Hunter is also anxious to strengthen his line-up before tackling such a foe as Winter Park would prove to be. There will be a game on Thursday afternoon, however, with a nine to be announced later.

INNES WILL APPEAL

From the Seven Year Sentence Pro- nounced Against Him in Atlanta Saturday

Atlanta, June 4.—Victor E. Innes was convicted yesterday of larceny after trust of about $4,000 he obtained from Mrs. Eloise Nelms Dennis, of Atlanta, who, with her sister, Miss Beatrice Nelms, disappeared in San Antonio, Texas, in June, 1914. Innes and his wife were acquitted of murdering the Nelms sisters in San Antonio.

He was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. He will appeal. Mrs. Innes will also face larceny charges.
